Eight Returnees Headline Pacific Riviera All-Stars

Eight returning all-stars headlined a team of 15 players from the Pacific-Riviera Pony League which was recently selected to represent the league in the district playoffs which begin July 22 at Live Oak Park in Manhattan Beach.

League champion Hayden Lee Broncos landed five players on the all-star lists which feature 12 14-year-old players and three 13-year-olds.

THE 13'S ARE Lowell Mondragon, Dave Farber, and Ray Allen.

'Cycle Racers Prep for Big Ones at Ascot

The nation's finest motorcycle racers will be moving into California for national championships during the next few weeks and many of them will be battling at Gardena's Ascot Stadium Friday night in last-minute preps for the big ones.

Ascot's weekly program begins at 8:30 p.m.

THE RACERS will vie in three national competitions sponsored by Promoter J. C. Aaganian. The first will be the 25-mile at Sacramento's State Fair Grounds Sunday, July 17; the second, the 8-mile national at Ascot Stadium Saturday night, July 23; and the third, the 20-mile national at Phoenix, July 31.

This week's action will see Troy Lee, defending Pacific Coast title; Al Gunter and Stu Morley among the top choices.

A RENEWAL of the Elliott-Schultz-Preston Petty duel is expected in the novice division.

'MAN AMONG BOYS' TALE OF AVILA

Wilmington High Mexican Musclem Heaviest Gridder on South's Shrine High Grid Team

By RICHARD ROBERTS
"A man among boys" is a hackneyed phrase along sportswriters row, but that's the tale of tackle Ray Avila's football career at Banning High in Wilmington.

The 235-pound Mexican musclem will be the biggest player in the Ninth Annual North-South Shrine Game at the Coliseum on August 5, and you can bet the rebels are relieved to have him on their side.

Expressing that sentiment would be one of the South coaches, Ray Vernoy, whose Los Angeles City champion Huntington Park team suffered some early season embarrassment by Banning, 34-6, largely due to the exploits of Avila.

"HE'S PRETTY serious about knocking people down," says his own coach, Paul Huebner, a Shrine coach two years ago, "but no more serious in a game than he is in practice." Pointing out that Avila pronounced like "Have-villa" is "extremely competitive," Huebner reveals that Ray is the school's undefeated intramural wrestling champion and once in the heat of struggle accidentally fractured an opponent's arm.

"He was also pretty tough on our equipment," Huebner added. "He's the only man ever to break our tackling dummy loose from its moorings and he broke three of his own supposedly 'unbreakable' face masks in blocking drills."

ON THE FIELD Avila is one

Huge Demand For Seats for Shrine Game

An unprecedented demand for "youth seats" for the 9th annual Shrine pageant and All-Star Football Game is deluging Shrine headquarters in Los Angeles, according to Elmer P. Bromley, managing director.

The annual Shrine show's stature as the biggest affair of its kind in the country has attracted the cream of Southern California's pageant parade performers to its ranks.

He predicted that this year's spectacular pre-game display will be recorded as the most colorful and striking pageantry ever held in the Southland.

Proceeds from the annual show and North-South football game support the Los Angeles Shrine Hospital for Crippled Children. It is the only fundraising effort of the year for Al Malaikah Shrine Temple and its 50 Shrine Clubs throughout Southern California.

All seats are reserved, and tickets may be obtained at Shrine Pageant and Football Headquarters, 655 W. Jefferson Blvd., Los Angeles 7.

Golf Lessons Given At Torrance, El Nido Sea-Aire Parks

A new series of golf lessons for youth and adults will begin Tuesday, according to the Torrance Recreation Dept.

Classes for youth, 9-17 years are scheduled Tuesday through Thursday afternoons at El Nido Park and July 19 through 22 at Torrance Park.

For adults, instruction will be given at Sea-Aire Golf Course with sessions set up for Tuesday and Thursday, and Wednesday and Friday evenings. The fee for six one-hour lessons is $5.

All-Star Games to Be Aired Over KFI

Coverage of baseball's two All-Star games is set by KFI-NBC radio for Monday, July 11, and Wednesday, July 13.

Monday's contest will be played at Municipal Stadium in Kansas City, Missouri, (air time: 11:45 a.m.). On July 13 the same teams will battle from New York's Yankee Stadium (air time: 9:45 a.m.)

of the few prep linemen strong enough to make the "pro-type" standup tackle, merely encircling a ball carrier with his powerful arms.

Offensively, Reynaldo — his proper name — played the so-called "weak side" or left tackle in the Pilots' high-powered single wing, forming a one-man fortress in holding up the defense on plays to that side.

Since his graduation last winter he's been longshoring on the Wilmington waterfront,

Huge Demand For Seats for Shrine Game

Five of the 15 regulars batted over 400 for league play.

Terry Kirkbride (.487), John Minick (.475), Lanny Robke (.410), and Rob Dobbie (.405) besides Jelinski were in the high average bracket.

Ray Allen (.7-2) and Jelinski (.7-3) form a strong pitching staff behind Dozier as the team readies for the double elimination all-star playoffs.

ED KLINE will manage the club while Bill Yenney has been named as coach. Both handled the champion Broncos during league play.

The all-stars off each team were: Broncos — Rob Dobbie, 14, Lee Peerson, 14, John Minech, 14, Dave Farber, 13, and Jack Dozier, 14.

Pintos — Ray Allen, 13, Coits — Steve Turner, 14, Ken Holland, 14.

Wranglers — Lanny Robke, 14, Bill Hocker, 14, Phil Herrera, 14.

Mustangs — Terry Kirkbride, 14, Jim Langston, 14.

Roans — John Jelinski, 14, Lowell Mondragon, 13.

Alternates named were Dale St. John, 13, from the Roans, and Ronnie Laporte, 14, and Don Denson, 13, from the Pintos.

so it seems a pretty good bet that he'll report to camp in top shape.

Huebner said, "He doesn't give the appearance of being as big as he really is because he's so compact."

AVILA CARRIED tape measurements of a trim 36-inch waist and a husky 55-inch chest on his six-foot build.

His future grid plans are unsettled, but Oregon State seems to have the inside track on his mansize talents.

STIRRING ACTION . . . Customers appreciate fast action at a rodeo, and they get it every time in bulldogging events. Perfect timing is required between horses and men when the cowboy undraps himself from the saddle onto the horns of a speeding, tough, cantankerous steer. A miscalculation of a fraction of a second, or an inch or two can spell trouble. Bulldogging will be part of the Torrance Championship Rodeo, scheduled Saturday & Sunday, July 30 & 31. DFG Law Conserves Human Life, Too

An arrest for one of the commonest violations of fish and game laws in the Northern California town of Williams recently may have served to save a human life. A man in a somewhat drunken state walked into the Williams police station and announced that he was hunting for his wife. He announced further that when he found her he was going to shoot her.

Game Warden Roy F. Erwin was called in to sign a citation against the wife hunter for violation of Fish and Game Code Section 2006 — having a loaded gun in a car on a public highway.

A loaded double-barreled shotgun was in the man's car, which was parked in the police station parking lot. The penalty was a $50 fine.

Eleven Year Old The Driller Dean of Aged Horse Racing Stakes Winners

Mrs. Tilyou Christopher's 5-year-old mare, Liberal Lady who, until defeated in the Midway Handicap at Hollywood Park two weeks ago, had put together a string of seven straight but hadn't won her first stakes race until this year.

Another recent example of the late-maturing horse is Pick's Choice, a 5-year-old son of Espirit De France, who won his first stakes race in The Ascot Gold Cup in May.

WHILE PUNDITS deplore the emphasis on speed and precocity, the high cost of breeding or buying and training a Thoroughbred today makes it mandatory that the horse get to the races quickly and earn his keep.

There are, however, a goodly number of thoroughbreds that bloom late. Stymie, of course is a classic example. Claimed for $2,500 at two he didn't win a stakes race until he was a 4-year-old and then went on to earn $918,485.

A TRA SURVEY of the 717 stakes races run in the United States last year shows that of the 456 winners of these races, 288 were four years old or over.

Dean of the 1959 Stakes winners was an 11-year-old son of Andy K. named The Driller who won the Endurance Handicap at Ruidoso Downs. The Driller won his first stakes at ten in 1958.

OTHER OLDSTERS winning their first stakes race in 1959 Gifted Gal, nine; and four 7-year-olds, Latin Lover, Little Umpa, Midontrial and Silver Ring.

Of the 80 four-year-old stakes winners in 1959, thirty nine were winning their first stakes. Sixty seven 5-year-olds won stakes races in 1959 and 26 of them were in that class for the first time. Two of the 22 six-year-old stakes winners were first timers.

It may be that you can't teach an old dog new tricks but it appears that with thoroughbreds it's never too late to become a stakes winner.

Ranchhand Finds Deer Meat Costly In Colusa County

A series of game law violations has cost a ranchhand from Arbuckle in Colusa County a total of $700 in fines. Warden Richard V. Laursen of Colusa and Warden Roy F. Erwin of Williams cited the man on charges of possession of parts of deer, spotlighting deer, taking deer out of season and taking deer with a 22 rifle.

The rifle was confiscated.

Warden Erwin praised the Colusa County Sheriff and other local law enforcement officials for aiding in apprehending and convicting the culprit.
